

22 Ways to Use Project Life Cards in Your Planner & Paper Crafts

Planners

- Add a photo and a post it tag, laminate, cut it out and make it movable in your binder.
- Use them on dividers
- Use to break up space on your planner pages
- Laminate and use as reusable checklists
- Use for adding additional things to a planner page
- Write good memories or items for your gratitude journal that day or week.
- Laminate a card and use it to make a mini dashboard with clips and sticky notes
- Use grid cards as a calendar for tracking stuff
- Use on your planner dashboard or in the pockets for keeping sticky notes
- Journal on them then add to scrapbook or memory planner.
- Use as Weekly Goal Cards, or make a weekly tab for your planner
- Laminate to use for lists, meal planning etc.
- Washi to-go cards - wrap washi on to take with you for planning on the go

Paper Crafts

- To-Do Lists
- Note cards - send friendship notes to your favourite people!
- Lunchbox notes - your kids will love this.
- If you're a big reader you can laminate them to make bookmarks
- Use as thank you notes or even gifts for your customers.
- Bind them into notebooks using a Bind-it-All or other system.
- Use in your Pocket letters.
- Glue together at top to make a pull apart notebook
- Use as address labels for sending out letters, cards, and packages.

Get more details and photos on implementing these ideas from the original blog post at: <http://bit.ly/csprojectlifecards>